

Inu Wine - Carménère

This wine has its origin in the most renowned area in Chile for Carmenera, San Clemente, the heart of the Maule valley. This Carmenera is intensely dark purplish red color; notes for black and red fruit are combined with hints of black pepper, coffee, and sweet oak notes. In mouth, this wine is full and concentrated with strong fruit flavor and well-structured and mature tannins.

Carménère

Varieties: Carménère 100%

Vineyards Origin: CWC Wines Estate, Maule Valley

Soil Type: Dark clay with moderate vigor.

Climate: Mild temperature, warm during day and cool at night

Harvest: Hand picked May

Winery: CWC Winery 165 miles south of Maule, Chile

Ageing process: 30% in barrels and 70% in stainless steel tanks during 4 months.

Bottling date: September

Best Enjoyed: With red or white meats, pastas, pizza, spicy dishes and cheeses.