

LÉO BY LÉO

BORDEAUX SUPÉRIEUR

"My aspiration : allow people, to discover Bordeaux wines anew, through the fusion of daring and excellence."

Bertrand Ravache

WINE ENTHUSIAST 90/100

Léo by Léo, a bold and elegant Bordeaux wine signed by a connoisseur of the vineyard of Bordeaux.

Bertrand Ravache selects wines which reflect his vision: to make the best of the terroir while challenging existing boundaries.

VINEYARD:

Rigorous selection of the most beautiful vineyards of Bordeaux. Plots of land situated on grounds rocky argilo of hillsides.

GRAPE VARIETY:

60 % Merlot and 40 % Cabernet Sauvignon.

WINE MAKING AND SELECTION:

All the stages of wine making is realized by the partner properties. The oenologist of the House Bertrand Ravache presets right after the malolactic fermentation.

Wines are then tasted and selected by Bertrand Ravache who looks for the alliance of the daring and the excellence.

AGEING:

Our oenologist shapes wine with great precision to strengthen the structure, bring complexity and enrich the aromatic pallet. The wine was aged in American oak for 9 to 12 months.

TASTING NOTES:

This wine has an elegant deep red colour, with purple shades. The nose offers small red and black fruits aromas with a nice maturity.

The toasty and spicy notes bring aromatic complexity. The mouth is fresh, generous with a pleasant sweetness, while the finish is long an allows the expressions of the fruit.
